Quest of '73
Carroll High School
Monroe, Louisiana
Volume I Book I
Co-editors: Ricky Johnson
Felix Manyweather

Foreword

The times, like the tides, come and go; and in their going, they deposit their sediments on the shores of our lives. We, the students of this time, have tried to bind our feelings and the pulse of our school into this book.

The last few years of our school life have been eventful, marked with the stains of innovations in our social order. The demands of our society have brought many changes into our school's framework at a whirlwind's pace.

Despite this moratorium in our educational quest, we feel that our accomplishments exhibit the dignified, talented and gifted black's struggle for acquisition of recognition in all areas of our pursuit.

This book intends to perpetrate the memory of the '73 Bulldog's Quest by exemplifying the spirit incorporated in its captures.

Dedication

To Mr. Matthew Williams, interim principal, for the untiring efforts you expended in making this a yearbook. It is with highest esteem that the faculty, yearbook staff, and student body dedicate the '73 Bulletin to you.
